

GTS 2022 Session 5 Chat Log

bellsmithsprings@hotmail.com Stearns:	Sam Stearns, Friends of Bell Smith Springs, in the future Shawnee National Park / Climate Preserve in Southern Illinois and honored to be
Wade Halva (he/him):	Welcome Sam!
Greg Tisher (he/him):	Check out our Summit Partners! https://www.greenteamsummit.org/our-partners
Greg Tisher (he/him):	Learn about the history of the land you reside on: https://native-land.ca/
Greg Tisher (he/him):	Check out our resources on learning from, listening to, supporting, and connecting with Native Communities: https://www.faithinplace.org/listening-to-indigenous-voices bellsmithsprings@hotmail.com Stearns:	Thank YOU, Wade: you are the reason I am here.
Ginnie Judd (she/her):	Glen Ellyn, IL - Council of Three Fires
Jane Laping:	Asheville, NC home of the Eastern Band of the Cherokee
Chetna (she/they):	berkeley, ca on the land of the Ohlone peoples
Christina Krost (she/her):	Miami, Ochethi Sakowin, Kaskaskia, Kickapoo
Douglas Kaufman:	Goshen, Indiana Potawatomi
Donna:	Council of Three Fires- Morton Grove, IL
Michelle Luu (she/her):	calling in from the land of potawatomi, peoria, and ho-chunk
Diane Barnes:	Joliet, il. Acknowledging the Three Tribes, outside of Chicago.
Hara Rola:	Point Pleasant NJ is on Lenape land.
Jennifer Wilhoit:	Bainbridge Island, WA - the traditional lands of the Suquamish people
Cathy Chambers:	Long Beach, CA, traditional land of the Tongva
Cindy Shepherd:	Joining from Central Illinois, which the Peoria and Potawatomi Nations, among others, stewarded
Carla Aldana (she/her):	hello from Waukegan! Land of the Kickapoo, miami, Potawatomi and mary jane:	Minnesota - Ojibwa land
Sr. Pat Cataldi, CPS:	Greetings from Louisa, KY land of the Cherokee
Idaho - Jean:	From Idaho living on Shoshone/Bannock Natice land
Katharine Ferguson:	Tucson Arizona Tohono O'odham, Yaqui
Linda Osikowicz:	Deer Park, IL, home of the Potawatomi and more, the same Jalisa
Jan Sabey:	Urbana, IL -- Piankashaw, Peoria, Potawatami, Kickapoo
mary jane:	minnesota - Ojibwa
Consuelo:	Roseland/Chicago. Council of Three Fires.
Bob Fraley:	Eugene OR, Kalapuya tribes
bellsmithsprings@hotmail.com Stearns:	The Shawnee Hills heal my body and nourish my soul: www.fobss.org www.shawneeforestdefense.org
Cheryl Petersen:	Susquehannock and Lenapehoking, Warwick, NY
United Activists:	Kimberly Koczan & Brian Flory, living on Miami land. We are so thrilled to hear Karen and Annabeth!
Faith in Place:	If you have questions for Annabeth and Karen, please add to the chat!
Sunny:	Intentional need explicit planning followed by on going accountability

2 Fawn Palmer,:	I raise up mutualism in the natural world. It is this positive entanglement that Annabeth talked about. I study the mycorhyzzal fungal networks that are in the soil. These take sugar from the roots of plants and provide chelates and complex compounds that are jam packed with the minerals in soils. To me, liturgy could use a praise psalms that point out these
Sharon Samoska:	From Waterbury. CT. an EJ community
Cindy Shepherd:	Thanks, Fawn! Love that image!
2 Fawn Palmer,:	Thank you Cindy.
Sharon Samoska:	As we work toward collective healing, the block I keep seeing and hearing from folks is we did not live 100 years ago or more, how can we be held responsible for what happened even before I was born?
Rev. Douglas Kaufman:	That is such a powerful way of looking at healing. What happened that you are so alienated from that which sustains you?
Lauren Paris She/Her:	Thank you, Karen! That's such a great point.
Jalisa Mauldin:	+++++
Ginnie Judd (she/her):	Thank you so much, Karen and Annabeth!
Rev. Brian Sauder (he/him):	Thank you panelists!!
Melanie Meade:	Thank you both!
Rev. Douglas Kaufman:	Thank you, Annabeth and Karen. So much experiential wisdom
Kimberly & Brian:	This is such powerful sharing!
Cheryl Petersen:	Love casts out fear.
Cathy Chambers:	Thanks for your offerings & wisdom
Jan Sabey:	Thank you, Karen and Annabeth, for many deep and wise words.
Michelle Luu (she/her):	calmness
Labarbara Madison UWF, Scott UMC, Pasadena, CA:	Thank you for being here
Ginnie Judd (she/her):	Thank you, Chetna. This is a beautiful practice.
Veronica Kyle:	What a beautiful meditation to go inward. Thank you ❤️🙏
Cesar Almeida (He/Him):	I feel hugged
John Glick (he,him) Goshen IN, Potawatomi land:	calm gratitude
Annabeth (AB) Roeschley:	thankful for the reminder that when I care for my body, I'm caring for
Hara Rola:	I feel so much more relaxed and centered.
Cindy Shepherd:	Thank you for that experience of acceptance and rest
Josie Gobel:	feeling very calm.
2 Fawn Palmer,:	I feel hope and positivity.
Isioma Odum (she/her):	refreshed
Sharon Samoska:	Takes away the pains of the world
Lauren Paris She/Her:	Hope
Krystle Moraska (she/her/ella):	my body is earth, such a powerful reminder for this work.
Rev. Douglas Kaufman:	For me self compassion is to recognize my new stage of life as an empty nester, and to go into the difficulty of letting go and hope for the future
Idaho - Jean:	A measure of peace
Jan Sabey:	Gratitude for the parts of my body that work, even I'm not thinking about them. So many intricate connections.
Isioma Odum (she/her):	May we all continue to heal

2 Fawn Palmer,:	Thank you
Labarbara Madison UWF, Scott UMC, Pasadena, CA:	thank you
Greg Tisher (he/him):	Session 5 Resources: https://bit.ly/gts-session5-resources
Hara Rola:	Thank you Chetna!
Alexander Malchow:	Thank you!
Faith in Place:	Chetna's info is included in the Session 5 resource page!
Greg Tisher (he/him):	Thank you to our Generous Sponsors. You can learn more about them here:
	Check out our Summit Partners!
Greg Tisher (he/him):	https://www.greenteamsummit.org/our-partners
Chetna Mehta (she/they):	and so it is!
Lauren Paris She/Her:	Thank you to all of our inspiring speakers!
Rev. Veronica Johnson (she/her):	Thank you all for joining us tonight!
Faith in Place:	Thank you Karen, Annabeth, and Chetna!!
Carla Aldana (she/her):	thank you!!!!
Marleigh Powell:	thanks!
Isioma Odum (she/her):	thank you!
Cathy Chambers:	Thanks!