Ginnie Judd (she/her):	Jane - go to this link https://pollev.com/katharine
Jane Baker:	ok

Victoria and Rob: bellsmithsprings@hotmail.com	What will help me develop a positive elevator talk on climate change such as Kathryn's in her TED talk? see www.shawneeforestdefense.org for our proposal to create a Shawnee National Park/Climate Preserve
Stearns:
Lauren Paris She/Her:	If you'd like to ask a question, please go to this link https://pollev.com/katharine . You can thumbs up other questions on the page that you'd like to see answered.
Terry Sanders:	Yes all living life is at risk!
Ginnie Judd (she/her):	If you'd like to ask a question, please go to this link https://pollev.com/katharine . You can thumbs up other questions on the page that you'd like to see answered.
sally:	Climate Change is not an equal opportunity disaster event.
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	Check out Dr. Hayhoe's "Global Weirding" series at https://www.youtube.com/c/GlobalWeirdingwithKatharineHayhoe
sally:	People are in denial about their exposure.
Rachel Cywinski:	Yes, that whole inaction premise is most amazingly explained in Ed Ayres' book "God's last offer", https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/2508141.God_s_Last_Offer . amazing how something written 2 decades ago. an be right on today
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	This is why we need to get our faith communities activated!
Ginnie Judd (she/her):	If you'd like to ask a question, please go to this link https://pollev.com/katharine . You can also thumbs up other questions on the page that you'd like to see answered.
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	Hopefully things like the heatwave on the western part of Turtle Island will help some of us close that psychological distance.
Lauren Paris She/Her:	Yes, Dorothy. This will be recorded and available to attendees.
Elena Canler (they/them):	Yes- It is being recorded and will be shared, Dorothy!
Robin Weller:	WOW
Pastor Scott Onque (He/Him):	wow
Amy Thoren:	ugh
Cam Smith:	ewww
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	Hahaha. I've lived the past quarter-century in the counties that most talk about the climate crisis.
Terry Sanders:	we talk when it directly attacks us. I mean attack.
Luke Kimble - CarbonCure Technologies:	Iowa - using CarbonCure in the concrete to build roads and reducing the GWP by 5%
Sharon Samoska:	How can I not talk about it when this summer brought more than ten days with temps over 100 which just a few years ago was only once or twice a summer... People in this area who are comfortable seem to think about this as not on my doorstep, I can combat heat with air cond, sorry about those who can't, but it is not my problem.
Rachel Cywinski:	The best conversations begin with asking questions and listening very carefully to answers.

Luke Kimble - CarbonCure Technologies:	Utah - talk about the Great Salt Lake disappearing.. and eco-disaster in the making.
Alan Greenland:	Also known as "agency".
Ginnie Judd (she/her):	If you'd like to ask a question, please go to this link https://pollev.com/katharine . You can also thumbs up other questions on the page that you'd like to see answered.
Sharon Samoska:	in New England not only the heat, but now drought and requests for cut back on use or fines are coming in the near future for abuse. Sad, the world is changing around us and yet, people can't see it...
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	Dr. Hayhoe's website: http://katharinehayhoe.com/
Liz Ferguson:	to sign up for Dr. Hayhoe's newsletter she mentioned, go here: http://katharinehayhoe.com 😊
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	We've got a group in our congregation who are pushing our city to plant more (native) trees and hiring more arborists to maintain the health of the trees.
Lauren Paris She/Her:	That's amazing, Jeff!
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	The win-win-win-win solutions that Dr. Hayhoe's talking about is sometimes called "multisolving."
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	You can learn more about multisolving at https://www.multisolving.org/

Gail Wisniewski:	Thank you so much for inspiring hope!
Diana Lennon:	thank you so much! head, heart, hands! great reminder!
Veronica Kyle:	This was such an awesome, truth-telling message. Thank you!
Nishantha Gunasekara:	Thank You Dr.Hayhoe
Robin Weller:	This is so encouraging for me as I feel like I am talking to a wall in many instances.
Sharon Samoska:	Awesome, inspiring, real, relational. I have found at meetings to feel where a person is and relate on that basis. I was amazed at a meeting with EPA that people I did not know thanked me for coming out and asking questions they did not know how to ask.
Ned Grossnickle:	Your talk has taken us from worried to action by talking about climate change with those we know.
Rachel Matthews:	Build resilience. Very hopeful.
Addie Miles:	I love the head, heart, hope approach.
Josh White:	I Wish I could get the last 3 minutes to play on my own
Donna M. Mosby:	Great presentations, thank you Dr. Hayhoe. May we act upon what we have heard, Amen.
Nancy Lorence:	Can we get a copy of this presentation to share with others?
Barbara:	You've inspired me to move forward in love!

Jeff Spencer (he,him):	To the person who asked, "I am a Baby Boomer (i.e., older than 60). As an older person, what are three specific things that I can do to have a positive impact on the climate crisis? This is important because I mostly spend time with seniors." Please check out https://thirdact.org/
K Stone:	A very powerful message Dr Hayhoe...thank you.
Victoria and Rob:	Such a positive and energizing talk, Dr Hayhoe. I'm looking forward very much to reading your book, already ordered.
Luke Kimble - CarbonCure Technologies:	Voting will drive development of Clean Energy
Addie Miles:	The concept of faith and moral values is core. I believe that we have to have heart to energize our hope.
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	How is empowering women and girls a climate solution? Check out https://drawdown.org/climate-solutions-101
Brittany Michalski:	Climate Stewards USA project coordinator here! thanks for the shoutout Dr. Hayhoe. Find us at https://climatestewardsusa.org
Brittany Michalski:	We are also working directly with congregations on tracking and reducing carbon footprints. Our free carbon tool for churches is https://360carbon.org
Ruth Bowen:	Just Energy For All, a United Women in Faith initiative. www.uwfaith.org
Luke Kimble - CarbonCure Technologies:	What is Houston doing?? I'm not seeing it.
Veronica Kyle:	The EcoWomanist Institute will continue to support Climate Education and Climate Resiliency for women living in EJ communities.
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	A specific example about empowering women and girls as a climate solution: https://drawdown.org/solutions/family-planning-and-education
Luke Kimble - CarbonCure Technologies:	Inflation Reduction Act has $250 mill for EPA's Environmental Product Declarations.
Dr. Katharine Hayhoe:	Here's my answer to the "what about the impacts of clean energy?" -> https://twitter.com/khayhoe/status/1510263146195431428
Michael Hughes:	Will a recording of this AMAZING talk be available?
Elena Canler (they/them):	Yes! We will share out after the summit @Michael
Lauren Paris She/Her:	Hi Michael! Yes, this will be recorded and sent to all guests.
Rev. Brian Sauder (he/him):	Katharine your twitter presence and advocacy is such a gift!
Lauren Paris She/Her:	Thank you for the inspiration, Katharine!
Alan Greenland:	Excellent answer; thank you, Katharine!
Lauren Paris She/Her:	As someone who works in the field, it is nice to have a hopeful message about our situation.
Elena Canler (they/them):	Yes! We can share out the chat info with the recording sally:	Electric cars do use fossil fuels rights?

Sharon Samoska:	Climate change question. Is there a way to force cities to monitor air pollution consistently and regularly especially when a business applies to increase its work yet not telling the real story about the pollution by large tractor trailers to increase in quadruple, or on days of air inversions causing people to have asthmatic attacks and the city temp to rise in that area.
Faith in Place:	If you would also like to save the chat tonight, in the chat box, you can save the chat by clicking on the three dots and click "Save Chat"
Jeff Spencer (he,him):	Regarding divestment from the fossil fuel sector ... follow @billmckibben and @350 on Twitter. Checkout https://350.org . There are other organizations, too.
Victoria and Rob:	Hybrid electric vehicles use fossil fuels, but complexly electric vehicles don't.
Karen A.- Portland, OR:	Not sure about your Pension funds? Go to divestOregon.org for detailed information on what happens with pension funds. what to look for and how to make a change. WE are fighting for this in Oregon government pension funds. Get ore information on what to look for and advocate for sustainable change.
Dr. Katharine Hayhoe:	http://www.katharinehayhoe.com
Beth J:	Faith in Place, I don't have three dots (often in webinars) to save chat. I have smiley face
Julia Steed Mawson:	I am hoping that the phrase, "Creation ... God's great Gift of Love" may reach our very conservative Catholic community in NH.
Robin Weller:	Thank you Faith In Place!!!
Ginnie Judd (she/her):	Thank you, Dr. Hayhoe!
Beth Holland:	We now start our Citizens' Climate Lobby meetings with good news
Ann Eachus Sarasota, fl:	save chat not available
